

1. Is APP Timber*TasOak* real oak species?

APP Timber*TasOak* consist 3 predominant species, which are Eucalyptus delegatensis, Eucalyptus obliqua and Eucalyptus regnans.

2. Where is the origin of APP Timber*TasOak*?

Australia: Tasmania, Victoria & NSW.

3. How is the machining and wood working properties of APP Timber*TasOak*?

APP Timber*TasOak* exhibits excellent acceptance of stains and paints. It nails, screws, machines, glues and turns well although some nailing may require pre-drilling. Tasmanian oak is a readily workable and a highly finishable species. It is moderately bendable.

4. How is the durability performance of APP Timber*TasOak*?

APP Timber*TasOak* is a warm dense, hard wearing hardwood with high impact resistance. In-ground durability of heartwood is moderate to poor. It performs well if painted or protected from persistent moisture.

5. Can APP Timber*TasOak* suitable for outdoor?

With suitable chemical treatment, it can be used for outdoor.

6. Is colour variation of APP Timber*TasOak* considered as defects?

Colour, varying from a light fawn to a pale brown, to dark tan, will often occur. Colour variation and minor gum veins are natural features and are not regarded as defects.

7. Why is colour variation happened?

Origin of the source which different in climate and condition affects the colour variation.